

Webinars Planned January 1-September 30, 2012

All sessions are: 1 hour

Participants must register 24 hours in advance

All sessions occur: 1:30-2:30 pm

Title of Training	Description	DATE
Webinar-Books and Babies: Exploring Emerging Reading with Infants and Toddlers using FOUNDATIONS SDA 9 Presenter: Laura Lukens-Parker	Description: From the day babies are born they begin their paths to literacy. Those who care for them hold the key to all later learning. It is important to understand the impact of positive relationships and the connection between infant and toddler language development and learning to read. This webinar will provide strategies on how you can support children under age 3, and every day practices that build the foundations for later reading experiences using the FOUNDATIONS to the Indiana Academic Standards .	1/18/12
Webinar-Molding Mini Mathematicians: Supporting Early Math Skills for Infants and Toddlers using FOUNDATIONS SDA 4 Presenter: Erin Syslo	Description: How do we help infants and toddlers learn about math? There are real ways you can help support the earliest math skills for children birth through 3 years. This webinar will show you how to connect everyday learning experiences and build a foundation for all future mathematics learning through the FOUNDATIONS to the Indiana Academic Standards .	1/25/12
Webinar-Snack Time Math: Preschool Transitions and Routines that Build Skills using FOUNDATIONS SDA 2 Presenter: Jennifer Taylor	Description: It's easy to make math a part of your day! Young children learn basic mathematical concepts through play and every day experiences. Snack times, transition times, and play time all teach these concepts. This webinar will give you concrete ideas to use throughout the day with preschoolers. These ideas, which come from the FOUNDATIONS to the Indiana Academic Standards , will help children build the foundation for all later math learning.	2/29/12
Webinar-Mini Mad Scientists: Exploring the Nature of Science	Description: Infants and toddlers are natural scientists who learn best through hands-on, sensory-based, guided exploration. This training will	3/28/12

Webinars Planned January 1-September 30, 2012

All sessions are: 1 hour

Participants must register 24 hours in advance

All sessions occur: 1:30-2:30 pm

with Infants and Toddlers using FOUNDATIONS SDA 5 Presenter: Amy Heaton	use the FOUNDATIONS to the Indiana Academic Standards to help you explore the role these experiences play in developing basic science concepts with infants and toddlers. It will also offer insight into how young children learn during the experimentation and exploration that builds the foundation for all future science learning.
Webinar-Scientific Thinkers: Preschoolers and Their Scientific Minds using FOUNDATIONS SDA 7 Presenter: Tory Masters	Description: Step into a preschool classroom filled with scientists! Want some fun, hands-on science activities to do in the classroom with the children? Want to know how to better prepare young children for Kindergarten? This webinar will take a look at the FOUNDATIONS to the Indiana Academic Standards for science in preschool classrooms and will give you some great information on building the foundations for science experiences of all kinds!	4/25/12
Webinar-It's a Small World: Social Studies for Infants and Toddlers using FOUNDATIONS SDA 6 Presenters: Kristi Burkhart Natalie Pugh	Description: For infants and toddlers, the world consists of the people and places immediately around them. As children grow, the world around them also grows. Infants and toddlers learn social studies concepts such as body awareness and time through their senses, experiences, and routines. Using the FOUNDATIONS to the Indiana Academic Standards, you will learn ways to help infants and toddlers discover the concept of time and develop the foundations of all future social studies learning.	5/30/12
Webinar-The World All Around Us: Social Studies for Preschoolers using FOUNDATIONS SDA 11	Description: Social Studies is the study of people and cultures. Young children learn about their world through exploration and talking about their immediate surroundings. Do you want to know how to teach preschoolers about the impact people have on the world's environment	6/27/12

Webinars Planned January 1-September 30, 2012

All sessions are: 1 hour

Participants must register 24 hours in advance

All sessions occur: 1:30-2:30 pm

Presenter: Susan Wilker	and how they live, work, get along with others, and solve problems? Using the FOUNDATIONS to the Indiana Academic Standards, this webinar will provide ideas about how to help children connect with their immediate surroundings and build the foundation for all future social studies learning.
Webinar-“I Can Do It”: Nurturing Physical Development, Confidence, Competence and Self-Esteem for Infants and Toddlers using FOUNDATIONS SDA 3 Presenters: Kim Swain Alyce Thompson	Description: Infants and toddlers are on the move. They learn best by doing, using their whole bodies. Learn how to promote the physical development of infants and toddlers by providing space, opportunities and interactions that encourage movement and exploration. Use the FOUNDATIONS to the Indiana Academic Standards to explore infant and toddler physical development and all of its benefits and build the foundations for all future physical development.	7/25/12
Webinar-Learning on Your Feet: The Physical Development of Preschoolers using FOUNDATIONS SDA 10 Presenter: Lorien Konetzka	Description: Physical movement grows the brain! Research has shown that children need to move to learn concepts like directionality, position in space, patterns and relationships – all things they must understand to learn math, how to read, and how to explore their world. Based on the FOUNDATIONS to the Indiana Academic Standards, this webinar will provide you with activities and ideas to get preschoolers moving and learning. It will also help you make sure young children are building the foundations for future physical development and academic success.	8/29/12
Webinar-More Than Words: Reading Comprehension for Preschoolers using FOUNDATIONS SDA 1 Presenter: Nicole Brown	Description: The development of a child’s reading strategies and comprehension begins a long time before that child starts school. For instance, studies show that regularly reading out loud to children even before they can read produces significant gains in reading comprehension, vocabulary and the decoding of words. This webinar will	9/26/12

Webinars Planned January 1-September 30, 2012

All sessions are: 1 hour

Participants must register 24 hours in advance

All sessions occur: 1:30-2:30 pm

	give you some effective strategies to help children build a solid foundation for reading comprehension using the FOUNDATIONS to the Indiana Academic Standards .
Webinar-Considering a Career in Child Care? SDA 8 Presenter: Liane Nickey	Description: How do I turn my love for children into a career? It's hard to know what's out there and where to start. Many people choose child care as a career without knowing much about their options. This webinar will help individuals who are considering child care as a profession by discussing the different types of careers along with the education requirements for each of the career choices.	1/19, 2/16, 3/15, 4/19, 5/17, 6/21, 7/19, 8/16, 9/20
Webinar-Universal Precautions IACCRR Presenter: Melissa Chalman	Description: Universal precautions training is required for all staff working in regulated child care programs. Early childhood professionals need to be knowledgeable about how to prevent disease transmission in the early childhood setting, including those spread through contact with blood and other potentially infectious bodily fluids. Universal precautions are measures taken in order to safely handle bodily fluids, blood, and airborne secretions to reduce the chance of infection and transmission of diseases to staff or children in child care settings.	1/3, 2/7, 3/6, 4/3, 5/1, 6/5, 7/3, 8/7, 9/4
Webinar-Paths to QUALITY™ Introduction Session IACCRR Presenters: Dottie Knepley Traci Marshall	Description: The Paths to QUALITY Introduction Session is designed to provide you with all the information you will need in order to participate in Indiana's quality improvement and rating system. You will learn about the four levels of participation, the enrollment process, mentoring options, rater visits, incentives and awards.	1/10, 1/26, 2/14, 2/23, 3/13, 3/22, 4/10, 4/26, 5/8, 5/24, 6/12, 6/28, 7/10, 7/26, 8/14, 8/23, 9/11, 9/27

Webinars Planned January 1-September 30, 2012

All sessions are: 1 hour

Participants must register 24 hours in advance

All sessions occur: 1:30-2:30 pm

Webinar-Introduction to the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) for Child Care IACCRR Presenter: Renee Kinder	Description: Do I have to accept a child who has a disability? Who will pay for the extra staff that may be needed if I enroll the child who has a special need? These are the sorts of questions that the ADA answers. The ADA is a piece of federal legislation that describes the rights and responsibilities of the parents as well as the providers when discussing caring for children with special needs. This webinar will provide an overview of this legislation, compare and contrast it to the Indiana licensing regulations, and share examples of how to implement this legislation into a child care setting in order to make the most appropriate decisions when caring for children with special needs.	1/12, 2/9, 3/8, 4/12, 5/10, 6/14, 7/12, 8/9, 9/13
Webinar-Disability Awareness IACCRR Presenter: Renee Kinder	Description: The foundation is the first part of a house to be built. Everything else is built upon this foundation. There are foundational pieces to caring for children with special needs that everything else is built upon. This webinar will discuss these foundational aspects such as defining inclusion, person-first language, the benefits of inclusion and the resources that are available to assist providers and family members.	1/24, 2/28, 3/27, 4/24, 5/22, 6/26, 7/24, 8/28, 9/25
Webinar-Introduction to Ages and Stages IACCRR Presenter: Renee Kinder	Description: This webinar will provide an overview of the Ages and Stages screening tool as well as compare what an assessment is vs. a screening. It will provide the opportunity to think through the current practices pertaining to screening children and why screening tools should be implemented in child care settings. Information will also be shared on	1/5, 1/17, 2/2, 2/21, 3/1, 3/20, 4/5, 4/17, 5/3, 5/15, 6/7, 6/19, 7/5, 7/17, 8/2, 8/21, 9/6, 9/18

Webinars Planned January 1-September 30, 2012

All sessions are: 1 hour

Participants must register 24 hours in advance

All sessions occur: 1:30-2:30 pm

	how to obtain additional assistance with the Ages and Stages screening tool.
Webinar-Aspects of Child Maltreatment IACCRR-Presented by Prevention of Child Abuse Presenter: Sandy Runkle	Description: Presented by Prevent Child Abuse Indiana, this one hour webinar will focus on the four types of child maltreatment: physical abuse, sexual abuse, emotional abuse, and neglect. It will also discuss the reporting laws in the state of Indiana.	1/11, 4/11, 7/11